Attending: Leo Sanchez, Becky Shubert, Luann Geer, Gary Atkinson, Paula Simerly, Karen & Paul Isaacson, Susan Bolton & Becky Allred
Absent; Louie Bay, Jason Neil & Terrill Williams

Discussion: Easter Egg Hunt, Dairy Days.

Treasurer Report – Scholarship $31,640 and General $16,000 reported by Gary Atkinson.

- Easter Egg Hunt

Was a success, the Chick-fil-A was a BIG Hit, and is looking forward to helping out in the future.

We have approached 2 Churches, and 1 other will contacted to see if they would be interested in taking over the Egg Hunt Event. Once we have received back their response we will discuss this further. Approx. 300 children attended and 2 gift baskets were won. Seemed to have plenty of eggs for the event. The weather was Fantastic!

- Dairy Days

Discussed: Grand Marshalls, Electrical Scott Keyes will assist as usual.

Vendors 31 paid, 1 more food spot left. Suggested to have the park mowed Tues before Dairy Days, Gary will discuss with the Rec Dept.

Garbage Western Waste will deliver Wed, clean out on Sat morning, and pick-up on the 19th.

Music – Bands scheduled.

Buggy for the Grand Marshall is setup with Harold Ruby cost to be $150. Books all ads are to Jan. They will be printed at Standard Printing. Idaho Milk Products will be paying for them this year.!! THANK YOU!!

Parade – Rick Cowen and Annie Burke are working on that again.

A token of appreciation should be sent to Sharon Bettencourt for her outstanding assistance and financial help given to the chamber for Dairy Days.

Elaine Bryant is retiring from C.S.I. her retirement party is Thursday, the board decided to send a plant, Becky S will get ordered and possible deliver on behalf of the chamber, and Elaine's many years of service.

Gary – "Mentioned that US Bank is charging a $5.00 fee monthly, trying to direct customers to get an e-statement. " " If he has to go to the internet HE IS DONE as Treasurer!"

It was moved by Gary Atkinson and moved by Becky Schubert to update the Chamber information with US Bank, and change to an e-statement checking, with 2 members Becky Schubert and Becky Allred being added to the account.

A vote was taken by President Leo Sanchez, with all voting, motion passed.

Luann mentioned by changing to the e-statement it will allow all of the responsibility to be off of Gary as well.

Next board meeting will be July 12th 11:30 (at Senior Housing)

Meeting adjourned 11:30 PM
